Reg A Funding Group Publishes Investment Crowdfunding Website for Craft Beer Drinkers and Breweries

Regulation A+ crowdfunding now allows craft beer drinkers the ability to invest in their favorite craft beer brewers and breweries. With real ownership and stock in a real craft beer brewery, funding for the craft beer industry has been revolutionized!

Las Vegas, NV, February 03, 2017 -- The Reg.A Funding Group announced today the publishing of www.CraftBeerInvestors.com, a website enabling craft beer drinkers to invest in their favorite breweries and allowing craft beer brewers the ability to raise money by participating in Regulation A+ crowdfunding offerings.

Previously, most great investment deals were provided to industry insiders or those who were “accredited investors” only. Now Reg. A+ has leveled the playing field where just about anyone can participate.

Said Reg.A Funding Group co-founder Ron Costa: "CraftBeerInvestors.com is the only resource on the internet that allows craft beer drinkers the ability to invest in their favorite breweries to help them grow and expand using the Regulation A+ crowdfunding vehicle. With this website, we are changing the craft beer industry for both drinkers and brewers!"

More information can be found at www.CraftBeerInvestors.com or at the www.CraftBeerMob.com website.
